NCDSB Trustees Inaugural Board Meeting Takes Place

November 21, 2022

The Northeastern Catholic District School Board Inaugural Board Meeting took place on Wednesday November 16, 2022 resulting in the acclamation of the Board Chair and Vice-Chair. Glenn Sheculski was elected to the position of Board Chair for the upcoming year. Elizabeth King was acclaimed as Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees.

The Inaugural Board meeting began with a prayer service and a beautiful commissioning ceremony. Each Trustee renewed their commitment to Catholic education and confirmed their Declaration of Office and oath of allegiance.

Tricia Stefanic Wertz, Director of Education, stated “am very pleased to welcome the new Board of Trustees for their four year term. We were honoured to have Bishop Poitras with us for the Commissioning Ceremony and Prayer Service to begin the Inaugural Board Meeting.

The NCDSB is proudly represented by nine elected Trustees, one student trustee, and our search continues for one appointed Indigenous Trustee.
